Arizona Fall League Announces 2009 Rosters

Phoenix, Arizona — The Arizona Fall League announces its rosters for the 2009 season. They include four 2009 first-round draft choices — no. 1 Stephen Strasburg (RHP, Nationals/Desert Dogs), no. 2 Dustin Ackley (1B, Mariners/Javelinas), no. 7 Mike Minor (LHP, Braves/Saguaros), and no. 10 Drew Storen (RHP, Nationals/Desert Dogs).

The rosters also are stocked with 23 former first-round draft choices from previous years, 25 foreign-born players, and other decorated players from every franchise in Major League Baseball. The record number of foreign-born players represents nine countries — Canada (8), Cuba (2), Dominican Republic (8), Japan (1), Mexico (1), Nicaragua (1), Panama (1), Taiwan (1), and Venezuela (2).

“The Arizona Fall League is proud of the contributions it has made to the development of the top prospects in baseball for the past 17 years,” offers Arizona Fall League Executive Director Steve Cobb. “History tells us between 75–100 of this year’s players, or nearly 50 percent, will reach the major leagues next year. We welcome them to Arizona and to their showcase opportunity in the Arizona Fall League.”

Arizona Fall League Player Eligibility

Roster size is established at 35 players per team.

Each major-league organization is required to provide seven players subject to the following eligibility requirements:

- All Triple-A and Double-A players are eligible provided they are on Double-A rosters no later than August 17.
- Two players below the Double-A level are allowed for 2009.
- Foreign players are allowed as long as the player is not on his native country’s primary protected player list.
- No players with more than two years of credited major league service as of August 31 (including major league disabled list time) are eligible except a team may select one player picked in the most recently concluded Major League Rule 5 Draft.
- Each team is allotted 20 pitchers but only 15 are designated “eligible” each game day.

The Fall League begins its 18th season on Tuesday, October 13. The league will play 12:35 p.m. and 6:35 p.m. games six days per week (Monday-Saturday) in five Phoenix-area Cactus League stadiums (Mesa, Peoria, Phoenix, Scottsdale, Surprise). The league also will play one game at each of the two newest Cactus League stadiums, Camelback Ranch-Glendale and Goodyear Stadium. The third annual “Rising Stars Game” is scheduled for Saturday, November 7 at Surprise Stadium. The championship game is slated for Saturday, November 21 at Scottsdale Stadium. All games during the World Series will be day games.

The 2009 Arizona Fall League organizational alignments follow. The Phoenix Desert Dogs seek their sixth consecutive championship.
