GET IT GOING: Following Clayton Kershaw’s stellar performance last night, the Dodgers evened the series 1-1 in their four-game set at AT&T Park with a 2-1 victory over the Giants. Los Angeles snapped their six-game losing streak in the Bay Area, which was its longest losing streak in San Francisco since April 21-September 2, 2015, when the club dropped seven straight games. Following the four-game series at AT&T Park, the Dodgers will return home for a six-game homestand against the Philadelphia Phillies and the San Francisco Giants.

Los Angeles looks to win its second consecutive game at AT&T Park, which would be the first time the club has won two straight in San Francisco since September 13-14, 2014.

The Dodgers also snapped their four-game losing streak to the Giants, which was the longest losing streak since losing five in-a-row on May 19-June 20, 2015.

The Blue Crew lost the 2016 season series 8-11 against the Giants, including a 2-8 mark at AT&T Park for their second straight season.

GONE STREAKING: With a single in the top of the first inning in last night’s contest, Dodger third baseman Justin Turner extended his hitting streak to a career-high tying 11 games (also: August 26-September 11, 2011). Turner, who finished last night going 2-for-4 with a run scored, has gone 15-for-42 (.357) with four runs, four doubles, four RBI and four hit by pitches, along with a .449 OBP and a .525 SLG during the run which started on April 13. Turner currently leads the National League in doubles (9, 2nd MLB), while ranking in the NL’s top 10 in batting average (.352, T-6th), on-base percentage (.425, 8th), multi-hit games (8, T-8th) and hit by pitches (5, 2nd) in 19 games to start the season.

STRONG RELIEF: Following Clayton Kershaw’s gem last night of allowing just one run on six hits in 7.0 innings with seven strikeouts, the Dodger bullpen allowed only two hits in 2.0 scoreless innings of relief. The Dodger 'pen, which has recorded 12 scoreless appearances in 21 games this season, leads the National League in ERA (2.97, 22 ER/66.2 IP), opponents’ on-base percentage (.281), opponents’ slugging percentage (.289) and fielding independent pitching (2.01). Dodger relievers also rank among the senior circuit in opponents batting average (.203, 3rd), WHIP (1.16, 2nd) and strikeouts (79, 2nd), while posting a 3.16 strikeout-to-walk ratio, which ranks third in the NL and also has allowed just one home run.

Dodger closer Kenley Jansen collected his fifth save of the season with a four-out save in last night’s contest, his third four-out save of the year. It was Jansen’s 16th career four-plus out save of his career, which ranks fifth among active big league relievers and has the most four-plus-out saves in the Majors since 2016 with eight.

Since returning from the disabled list on April 14, Pedro Baez has tossed 7.0 scoreless innings of relief in six appearances and has allowed just one hit (1-for-22...045) with eight strikeouts. Since Sept. 6, 2016, Baez has tossed a career-high 18.2 scoreless innings in 17 games, limiting hitters just a .127 (8-for-63) average with 23 strikeouts against seven walks during that span.

Dodger southpaw Grant Dayton made his first rehab appearance last night with Single-A Rancho Cucamonga, striking out the side on 13 pitches in the first inning. Dayton was placed on the 10-day disabled list on April 18 with an intercostal strain.

THE DEBUT: Cody Bellinger, who had his contract selected prior to last night’s contest from Triple-A Oklahoma City, made his Major League debut yesterday with the start in left field. Bellinger also recorded his first career hit, with an infield single in the ninth inning off of Giants’ reliever Neil Ramirez. Bellinger, who entered the 2017 season rated by MLB.com as the Dodgers’ No. 1 prospect and rated by Baseball America as the seventh-best overall prospect in baseball, posted a .343 (23-for-67)/.429/.627 slashline with 15 runs, four doubles, five home runs, 15 RBI and seven stolen bases in 18 games with the OKC Dodgers this year. Prior to his promotion, Bellinger ranked among the Pacific Coast League leaders in runs (T-4th), home runs (T-4th), RBI (T-8th), total bases (42, T-6th), stolen bases (T-2nd), on-base percentage (11th), slugging percentage (9th) and OPS (1.055, 7th). The 21-year-old entered his fifth professional season after being selected by the Dodgers in the fourth round of the 2013 First-Year Player Draft.

To make room on the active roster, the Dodgers optioned outfielder Brett Eibner, who went 1-for-5 (.200) in three games in two stints with Los Angeles to Triple-A Oklahoma City and to create room on the 40-man roster, Los Angeles designated right-handed pitcher Joe Gunkel for assignment.

THEY KNOW CUETO: A couple of Dodgers have fared well against tonight’s starter for the Giants, Johnny Cueto, including Corey Seager, who has gone 6-for-17 (.353) with a double and an RBI against the right-hander in his career. Justin Turner has also hit the ball well against Cueto, batting .333 (7-for-21) with two doubles, a home run and two RBI, while Chase Utley has gone 11-for-34 (.324) with a double, a homer and two RBI.
TONIGHT’S STARTER at SAN FRANCISCO: LHP ALEX WOOD (1-0, 3.29 ERA)

NOTE:
- Made his last start on Friday at Arizona, allowing four runs on seven hits in 4.2 innings, not factoring in the decision in the Dodgers’ 13-5 defeat…struck out six against one walk on 76 pitches
- In four games (two starts) this season, he has gone 1-0 with a 3.29 ERA (5 ER/13.2 IP) and has struck out 14 against seven walks…has limited the opposition to a .189 batting average (10-for-53), allowing only a .105 average (2-for-19) to lefties against a .235 mark (8-for-34) to right-handers
- Since joining the Dodgers on July 30, 2015, he has gone 7-10 with a 3.99 ERA (64 ER/144.1 IP) and has held hitters to a .243 average…has struck out 129 batters against 50 walks in 144.1 innings, posting a 2.58 strikeout-to-walk ratio

CAREER NOTES:
- Is in four big league seasons, has gone 28-30 with a 3.35 ERA in 116 games (79 starts) with Atlanta (2013-15) and Los Angeles (2015-16)
- Has gone 24-28 with a 3.43 ERA in 79 starts, while going 4-2 with a 2.53 ERA in 37 career relief appearances
- Since his Major League debut in 2013, he ranks among National League leaders (min. 350.0 IP) in opponents grounded into double play per nine innings (0.98, 7th), home runs allowed per nine innings (0.70, 12th) and pickoffs (15, 5th)
- Has a career 2.95 strikeout-to-walk ratio, striking out 466 against 153 walks in 513.0 innings
- Made his first career Major League start on June 18, 2013 against the New York Mets, allowing one run on two hits in 3.0 innings, recording the loss in the Braves’ 3-4 defeat…struck out five and issued three walks on 73 pitches
- Holds a 9-5 record with a 1.68 ERA in 26 career starts in three minor league seasons in the Braves (2012-14) organization
- Originally selected by the Atlanta Braves in the second round (85th overall) of the 2012 First-Year Player Draft from the University of Georgia

VS. SAN FRANCISCO:
- Last faced the Giants on Oct. 2, 2016, tossing a scoreless relief in the Dodgers’ 7-1 defeat…last started against San Francisco on April 7, 2016 at AT&T Park, allowing five runs on eight hits in 5.0 innings and taking the loss in the Dodgers’ 12-6 defeat…struck out three and issued two walks on 85 pitches
- In six career games (two starts) against the Giants, he has gone 0-2 with a 6.89 ERA (12 ER/15.2 IP) …has struck out 18 against seven walks in 15.2 innings

TOMORROW’S STARTER vs. SAN FRANCISCO: JULIO URIAS (5-2, 3.39 ERA)

- Will make his 2017 debut…last big league start was on Sept. 29, 2016, against the Padres, tossing three scoreless innings while allowing only one hit, not factoring in the decision in the Dodgers’ 9-4 victory at PETCO Park…struck out five and issued two walk on 58 pitches
- In three starts with Triple-A OKC this season, has posted 1.93 ERA (3 ER/14.0 IP) and has held the opposition to a .170 batting average, while striking out 15 batters against nine walks
- Appeared in five games (three starts) during spring training, went 1-0 with a 3.24 ERA (3 ER/8.1 IP) and struck out nine while issuing four walks

VS. SAN FRANCISCO:
- Last pitched against the Giants on Sept. 21, 2016, allowing one run on three hits in 2.0 innings of relief, not factoring in the decision in the Dodgers’ 9-3 victory…struck out one and did not allow a walk on 33 pitches
- In two career games (one start) against the Giants, went 0-1 with a 3.68 ERA (3 ER/7.1 IP) and has limited batters to a .241 average (7-for-29)…has struck out eight against one walk, while posting a 1.09 WHIP
The Dodger bullpen currently leads the National League in ERA (2.97, 22 ER/60.2 IP), while ranking among the senior circuit in opponents’ batting average (.240, 9th), WHIP (1.25, 9th), strikeout-to-walk ratio (3.16, 3rd), strikeouts (22, 2nd), and strikeout-per-nine innings (16.67, 2nd)…allowing their first home run of the season on April 17 against the D-backs, posting a 0.14 homruen per nine innings, which is the best in the big leagues

Since pitching coach Rick Honeycutt joined the Dodgers in 2006, the Dodger pitchers rank first in the Major Leagues in ERA (3.65), WHIP (1.26), strikeouts (437, 2nd), and strikeout-to-walk ratio (3.21, 2nd) and all opponents’ slashline numbers (2.45/.311/.386/RBI)

The Dodger bullpen, led by bullpen coach Josh Bard, ranked among MLB leaders in ERA (3.35, 2nd), opponents’ batting average (.221, 2nd), strikeouts (633, 1st) and WHIP (1.16, 2nd), while combining to set a franchise record with 590.2 innings pitched in 607 total appearances, both of which led the big leagues
