Footnotes: (a) list subject to change (b) good faith estimate of fair market value (c) autographed item (d) restrictions apply

Auction purchases are generally tax-deductible only to the extent that the amount paid for an item exceeds the fair market value of that item. Phillies Charities has set forth a best estimate of the fair market value of most items offered in this auction. Item values represent the donor's estimates and are not warranted for tax purposes or for general value. To claim a charitable contribution deduction for federal income tax purposes, a donor must have records to substantiate the gift, including a gift made by purchase at an auction. We will provide each purchaser with a receipt listing the estimated fair market value of each item purchased (if known) and the amount paid for each item. The receipts should be saved in order to substantiate any income tax deductions for auction purchases. We have done our best to make a good faith estimate of the value of each item in the auction.
